CORRIGAN UNDER BAIL.

Constable Neary' Assailant Severely Arraigned by Alderman Jones.

James Corrigin, the keeper of the "Farmers' Rest," on the Falibrook road, who gave Constable Neary such a desperate resistance Monday night. was last night held under $1,500 by Alderman Jones, on four charges, assault and battery and pointing a pistol, preferred by his wife, almo the serious charge of felonious attempt on the life of Constable Edward Neary; also, resisting an officer.

Corrigan, who professed great sorrow for his misdeed and begged for leniency on the strength of promising to quit drinking, the cause of his recent wild career, was severely arraigned by Alderman Jones. The adderman gave him a castigution for his attack on Constable Neary, Corrigan's following the summer. The expectaconduct at Emergency hospital, where

COFFEE VISE. Holds Fast Until You Get a Knock-down.

"I had used coffee moderately up to six years ago," writes a lady from Piney Creek, Md., "when I was seized with an attack of nervous prostration, and was forbidden coffee by my physician. I was constantly under trentment for nearly three years. After my recovery, I once took a cup of coffee, and it made me so sick I did not want

"After the nervous prostration, my stomach was very weak, so that I had to be careful with my appetite. as I would eat certain things, I would have an attack of stomach trouble sometimes lasting several weeks, so when I was attacked by crysipelas two years ago, my stomach was immediate-

"I kent getting worse until nothing would stay on my stomach, not even rice white or milk, and I was so weak I had to be fed with a spoon. I had a craving for something like coffee, but that was impossible, so father went to town and got some Postum Food Coffee, and when he asked the doctor if I might have it, he quickly answered, byes.' Mother made if exactly as directed, and brought me part of a cup and it was delicious, satisfied every eroving, and best of all, stayed on pny stomach without distress, giving con fort instead. For several days I lived on Postum, gradually increasing the amount I took until I could drink a cupful, Then I began to take solid food with it, and so got well and strong again. I now use it constantly, and I am entirely free from any stomach

"Father and mother both use it. Coffee made Mamma nervous and disagreed with her stomach so that she would taste it for hours after drinking. Father had stomach trouble for five or six years, and used to be deprived of various articles of food on account of it. Now be can eat anything since he quit coffee and uses Postum. Father says that it is better than Mocha or Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich, he was taken to have his wounds dressed, and where it was necessary to restrain him by means of the straight-jacket, was denounced as being "shameful, indecent and inhuman. You could not even claim an atom to decency, during your four hours! there," said the alderman to Corrigan with spirit.

Corrigan provided the security and was allowed to go home on his solemn comise to cease drinking, tion of Officers-Wilkes-Barre Is An Opportunity Tomorrow for Carbondalians to Aid Work of Emergency Hospital.

DONATION DAY.

> Carbondallans will have another oportunity tomorrow to show substanhal sympathy in the splendid work that is being done by the city's principal charity. It will be donation day Emergency hospital-a day that should be fixed in the minds of our citizens as an occasion to co-operate with the unanagement of the hospital student in the school of music at Syrain effectively relieving the distress and ruffering of the community. The Gillis block on Park place, has been designated as the receiving place. A committee will be present all day. so that any articles can be left at any time, with assurance of being cared for. If word be sent to headquarters, i messenger will be sent to the homes The next session will be held at of contributors to deliver the dona-

It is earnestly wished that there he a general and a generous response on this donation day. The presence of the strike has sorely manifested itself in he donations to the hospital since spring. This is the first appeal since spring, which should operate to the success of tomorrow. The good that is accomplished by the hospital cannot be told in words, but there are abundant evidences in many a grateful home in Carbondale. To perpetuate this work should be the pleasure of our citizens hence, the splendid opportunity of this

Amateur Art Association, tells young women what to do to avoid pain and suffering caused by female troubles.

"I can conscientiously recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to those of my sisters suffering with female weakness and the troubles which so often befall women. I suffered for months with general weakness and felt so weary that I had hard work to keep up. I had shooting pains and was utterly miserable. In my distress I was ad-vised to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it was a red letter day to me when I took the first dose, for at that time my restoration began. In six weeks I was a changed woman, perfectly well in every respect. I felt so elated and happy that I want all women who suffer to get well as I did."—Miss Guila Gannon, 359 Jones St. Detroit. Corresponding Sec'y Mich.
